APPLY NOW for the BRAND NEW National Professional Qualifications (NPQs) with East London Teaching School Hub

The new National Professional Qualifications are completely different to previous NPQs.

- ▶ Content has been completely refreshed based on brand new and relevant evidence-based frameworks
- ▶ You will apply practical learning to real challenges and lead real change as a result
- ▶ Blended flexible learning allows you to learn in a way that works best for you
- ▶ Assessment has changed! You will complete a short open book case study assessment after you complete your NPQ. (No more long project to complete whilst on the course!)
- ▶ You will focus on how you can be the very best at your current job as well as being properly prepared for the next stage of your career
- ▶ Local training is facilitated and contextualised by highly effective local school leaders
- ▶ The NPQ Leading Teacher Development is fully-funded this year!
- ▶ There are full scholarships for schools that meet the Pupil Premium eligibility criteria for all NPQs. (Over 90 schools in Hackney and Tower Hamlets are eligible: check here to see if you work in one!)
- ▶ East London Teaching School Hub is a delivery partner for both Teacher Development Trust and UCL Institute of Education so you have a local choice of lead provider.
